

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

WHEREAS, the Forty-first Legislature at its First Called Session passed House Bill No. 154, being "AN ACT to amend Article 6692 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925; and declaring an emergency"; and,

WHEREAS, said Bill has been vetoed for the reasons set out in the following statement, which has been filed with said Bill in the office of the Secretary of State:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE
MAY 24, 1929

The attached Bill, being House Bill No. 154, an Act "to amend Article 6692 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925; and declaring an emergency", attempts to give Tax Collectors in counties having five thousand or more motor vehicles a commission of four per cent on all license fees collected on the first five thousand motor vehicles registered and two per cent on all amounts collected on motor vehicles registered thereafter. Under the present law Tax Collectors in counties having more than five thousand motor vehicles receive a commission of two per cent on all amounts collected for license fees. The effect of this Bill would be to increase the compensation of Tax Collectors in such counties. I am of the opinion that the Tax Collectors of the first named class are among our best paid public officials, and I do not believe this increase in compensation is justified. For the reasons stated, the Bill is hereby vetoed.
